Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-9 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are allowed for the reasons set forth in Applicant's remarks. Note that the claims require a detection of (1) which member resources are in use, and (2) which member resources are intended to be modified, and then permitting access to resources based on these determinations. Examiner was unable to find prior art that anticipated or rendered obvious the combination of those two features in the context of the claimed invention. The prior art generally described setting read and write access permissions, but these types of permissions don't necessarily determine which resources are both in use and intended to be modified.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
